

We Swim for Jesus!

“So God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created Him; male and female He created them.” Genesis 1:27

Bible Verse for Week #1 Review Questions

- What motivated God to create the world?
- What is it about human beings that sets them apart from other animals?
- How do others see the image of God in you?
- What evidence do you have that you have worth?
- How should that truth affect the way you feel about yourself?
- At what times do you tend to get down on yourself?
- How can knowing that you are a special creation of a loving God help you during those times?
- Why should men and women respect each other and work together?
- Which people are created in God’s image?
- How should that affect the way we treat them?
